The North Carolina State Department of Archives and History, Education Building, Raleigh, will photostat family data from Bibles for filing with the genealogical collection in the Department. For the privilege of making this file copy, one free copy of each entry page will be furnished the owner of the Bible. Only Bibles with family data before 1900 are desired at present. Persons interested in this arrangement may bring Bibles to the Search Room (Room 101). About two weeks will be required before the return of the Bible, but it will be safe in the Archives during that time.

Mr. Paul Quattlebaum, of Conway, South Carolina, has compiled a genealogy of the MacRae family, dating from the 1400's, and including data on the members who migrated to the Carolinas in the 1700's. This genealogy was published in the Summer, 1958, issue of THE SOUTHERN GENEALOGIST'S EXCHANGE, 2525 Oak Street, Jacksonville 4, Florida.

Mr. Charles H. Hamlin has compiled "The Lineage Book" of past and present members of the Cincinnati Chapter, Ohio Society, Sons of the American Revolution. Approximately 600 lineages (including 160 Revolutionary War ancestors from Md., Va. and N. C.), over 3800 surnames, tracing back to all of the original thirteen colonies. Completely indexed, size $8\frac{1}{2}$" x $11\frac{1}{2}$", handsomely bound. Address: Mr. Charles H. Hamlin, 2324 Park Avenue, Apt. 26, Cincinnati 6, Ohio. Price: $10.00, postpaid.

Mr. John Elliott Wood (Brig. Gen., USA, Ret.), has compiled a series of genealogical charts (size $14\frac{1}{2}$" x 22") in the name of the Pasquotank Co. Historical Society, on several of his ancestral families, including Bailey, Elliott, Pool, Sutton, Tomes, White and Wood. Unfortunately, much guesswork has gone into the making of the charts (thus creating many errors), but perhaps a wide circulation of the charts among descendants and other interested persons will result in the data being more fully documented. The charts sell for $1.00 each. Address: Mr. John E. Wood, Anchorage Farm, Currituck, North Carolina.

A complete card index has been carefully compiled for the 1830 census of Arkansas--the entire state. The compiler, Mr. Harrell McCullough, will send full census data from this index for $1.00 per surname per county, or from the entire state (22 counties) for $15.00 per surname. Address: Mr. Harrell McCullough, 237 Ridge Avenue, Evanston, Illinois.

Williams and Griffin, who did such a good job in their first two volumes (Edgecombe County, North Carolina, Wills, 1733-1856, and Edgecombe Marriages, 1733-1868), have announced two more volumes! The first volume, BIBLE RECORDS OF EARLY EDGECOMBE, has 273 pages of Bible records, plus 24 pages of family charts (in paragraph form) compiled by the late Gov. Henry Clark of Tarboro, N. C., including families of: Blount, Burgess, Cheshire, Clark, Hawkins, Haywood, Herne, Johnson, Nash, Parker, Ruffin, Shepherd, Singletary, Toole and Williams. Also, obituaries and death notices from The Raleigh Register, 1801-1867, and The Tarboro Free Press, 1836-1861. The second volume, TOMBSTONES OF EARLY EDGECOMBE AND THE 1850 CENSUS, includes 173 pages of tombstone records, plus the entire 1850 census of Edgecombe Co., N. C., in full--the first census to give names, ages and birthplaces for the entire family, men, women and children. The census was prepared by Hugh Buckner Johnston, outstanding historian and genealogist of Wilson, N. C. Each volume sells for $12.50. Address: Mrs. W. Gray Williams, Arlington Terrace, Apt. 112, Rocky Mount, N. C.

REVIEWS

ANCESTRY AND DESCENDANTS OF NEILL ALEXANDER CLARK (1822/23-1864) OF CUMBERLAND CO., N. C.

Mr. A. Wilbur Clark has compiled and published a genealogical record of his paternal grandfather's (Neill Alexander Clark) descendants. Included are the Clark coat-of-arms (with explanation), origin of the name Clark, general data on the Clarks in the United States and North Carolina up to and including 1790. Sixteen pages; size 8½" x 11"; price: $3.00. Address: Mr. A. Wilbur Clark, 1455 Pine Valley Loop, Fayetteville, N. C.

1850 CENSUS, WARREN COUNTY, TENNESSEE

Census records are primary source material for genealogists and historians, and published census records are especially welcome additions to any library shelf. One of the latest to be published is the 1850 census of Warren County, Tennessee. The 1850 census is the first, incidentally, to list every free person, men, women and children, by name, giving age, place of birth, occupation, etc. This 1850 census of Warren Co., Tenn., is nicely printed, stoutly bound, and well indexed. (A large number of the heads of families were born in North Carolina.) Nearly 200 pages, size 8½" x 11", price $4.50, postpaid. Compiled, published and distributed by: The Womack Printing Co., 114 College Street, McMinnville, Tennessee.

JOHN MARSHALL, SR.

John Marshall, Sr., died 1732/3 in Brunswick Co., Va.; his son, John, Jr., died in 1781, Warren Co., N. C. Mrs. Alienne Wiggins Turner, a descendant, has compiled a "Genealogy and History of some of the Descendants of John Marshall, Sr., of Brunswick County, Virginia, 1732-1956." Forty pages, size 6" x 9", contain a wealth of genealogical data on this family; no index. Mrs. Turner ends her Preface with: "You have to do your own growing no matter how tall your grandpa was." Address: Mrs. Alienne Wiggins Turner, 300 Gary Street, Henderson, North Carolina.

INDEX

A reliable index is, or should be, an important part of any genealogical publication. Martha Porter Miller, realizing this fact, has prepared a very readable and comprehensive INDEX TO THE GENEALOGICAL DEPARTMENT OF THE DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION MAGAZINE, Vol. 91, 1957. Miss Miller says, "Should the Index to Volume 91 prove beneficial, indices to previous volumes, as well as future ones, will be published." It is hoped that a large number of TNC's readers will support Miss Miller's very worthwhile efforts so that this valuable work may be continued. 62 pages, size 7" x 10", 3 columns per page; price: $2.00. Address: Miss Martha Porter Miller, 2311 Connecticut Avenue, Washington 8, D. C.

OLD SPEEDWELL FAMILIES

Speedwell, Claiborne Co., Tenn., lies in Powell Valley, on the east side of the Cumberland Mountains, the county adjoining the Kentucky-Tennessee state line. Lawrence Edwards has compiled what he calls "the only community genealogy that I know of," taking in most if not all the families that settled in or near Speedwell, beginning at the time of the American Revolution. Among the family genealogies included are: Carr, Davis, Dunn, Edwards, Gibson, Hunter, Maddox, Moyers, Rogers and Thomas. The compiler has a sense of humor. On his map of the Speedwell Country, he noted that "Davy Crockett was not born here. He was born everywhere else." 117 pages, size 6" x 9", several pages of photographs; no index; price: $5.00. Address: Mr. Lawrence Edwards, 3442 Radford Road, Memphis 11, Tenn.

MARRIAGES OF EDGECOMBE CO., N. C., 1733-1868

This volume of marriages for Edgecombe County, by Mrs. Ruth Smith Williams and Mrs. Margarette Glenn Griffin, contains a wealth of marriage records in addition to the c4000 marriage bonds on file in the Archives in Raleigh. In fact, there are fourteen separate listings to keep in mind when consulting this volume. The marriage bonds take up the first 180 pages; there are 6 pages of marriages taken from the Marriage Register in the courthouse; 51 pages proved by Edgecombe wills; 11 pages from the Raleigh Register and North Carolina Gazette; 14 pages from Tarboro Free Press; 7 pages from the Battle Book; 17 pages proved by Bibles, wills and deeds; 4 pages proved by Halifax Co. records; five small miscellaneous listings (2 pages); and 6 pages from old Bibles---300 pages in all. Partially indexed. Price: $12.50. Address: Mrs. W. Gray Williams, Arlington Terrace, Apt. 112, Rocky Mount, North Carolina.

WAKE COUNTY DEEDS, 1771-1832

Searchers in Wake County records may or may not have discovered that half the deed records from 1771 (the year Wake County was formed) to 1832 are missing! Unfortunately, the missing records were destroyed by fire. Here is the story. The Wake County Register of Deeds in 1832 was one Richard Smith. Smith owned a store on the west side of Fayetteville Street, between Hargett and Morgan Streets, in Raleigh. In September, 1832, Smith's store, along with all the other buildings in that block, was completely destroyed by fire. It was later discovered that a 27-year-old clerk in Smith's store, Benjamin F. Seaborn, had set fire to the store to cover up his theft of money from his employer. Seaborn was convicted of arson and hung at Fayetteville in 1834. Smith had apparently found it more convenient to keep many of Wake County's deed books in his store rather than in the courthouse. Thus eighteen of Wake County's earliest deed books went up in smoke in 1832; half of all the deed books in Smith's care. Following is a list of Wake County deed books, 1771-1832, showing which books have been preserved and which were burned in 1832:

Deed Book A - c1771-c1773 - burned in 1832
Deed Book B - c1774-c1776 - burned in 1832
Deed Book C - c1777-c1779 - burned in 1832
Deed Book D - c1780-c1781 - burned in 1832
Deed Book E - c1782-c1783 - burned in 1832
Deed Book F - March Term, 1784 - Sept. Term, 1785 - preserved
Deed Book G - March Term, 1785 - Dec. Term, 1786 - preserved
Deed Book H - Dec. Term, 1786 - March Term, 1790 - preserved
Deed Book J - c1790-c1791 - burned in 1832
(There was seldom if ever any old record book designated as Book I, since the letters I and J were written exactly alike, and in alphabetical lists the I's were included with the J's. So to avoid confusion, Book I was omitted. Books designated as Book I were actually Book 1 (one).)
Deed Book K - 1785-1862 (Land Grants) - preserved
Deed Book L - c1791-c1792 - burned in 1832
Deed Book M - c1793-c1794 - burned in 1832
Deed Book N - c1795-c1796 - burned in 1832
Deed Book O - c1797-c1798 - burned in 1832
Deed Book P - c1798-c1799 - burned in 1832
Deed Book Q - June Term, 1799-May Term, 1801 - preserved
Deed Book R - May Term, 1801 - May Term, 1803 - preserved
Deed Book S - c1803-c1804 - burned in 1832
Deed Book T - Nov. Term, 1804 - Feb. Term, 1807 - preserved
Deed Book U - Feb. Term, 1807 - Feb. Term, 1809 - preserved
Deed Book V - Feb. Term, 1809 - Nov. Term, 1810 - preserved
Deed Book W - c1810-c1812 - burned in 1832

Deed Book X - c1812-c1813 - burned in 1832
Deed Book Y - Feb. Term, 1814 - May Term, 1815 - preserved
Deed Book Z - c1815-c1816 - burned in 1832
Deed Book 1 - Aug. Term, 1816 - Nov. Term, 1817 - preserved
Deed Book 2 - Nov. Term, 1817 - Nov. Term, 1818 - preserved
Deed Book 3 - Nov. Term, 1818 - May Term, 1820 - preserved
Deed Book 4 - c1820-c1821 - burned in 1832
Deed Book 5 - Nov. Term, 1821 - May Term, 1824 - preserved
Deed Book 6 - May Term, 1824 - Feb. Term, 1826 - preserved
Deed Book 7 - Feb. Term, 1826 - Feb. Term, 1827 - preserved
Deed Book 8 - c1827-c1828 - burned in 1832
Deed Book 9 - Feb. Term, 1829 - Feb. Term, 1831 - preserved
Deed Book 10 - c1831-c1832 - burned in 1832

Wake County deeds are complete, beginning with Deed Book 11, Nov. Term, 1832 - Feb. Term, 1835. The loss of eighteen of Wake County's earliest deed books is a severe loss, perhaps more keenly felt by genealogists, historians and lawyers, than by laymen. Of course, none of the deeds in any of the destroyed eighteen deed books appears in the Wake County Cross-Index to Deeds, in the Wake County courthouse. But are the eighteen deed books lost completely to mankind? The books, themselves, were, of course, totally and completely destroyed, but fortunately the early deeds were proven in court, and that fact was recorded in the county court minutes, if but briefly! The entry in the court minutes simply mentioned, for example, that a deed from John Smith to William Jones was proven by Thomas Jones, a subscribing witness. But these brief entries are especially valuable in instances where the deed books themselves are not available!

Wake County Court Minutes, March Term, 1771, to June, 1777, are missing, unfortunately, thus rendering all Wake County deeds a complete and total loss for that period--roughly, the deeds in Books A and B. However, most if not all of the deeds recorded in destroyed Books C, D and E, June Term, 1777, through Dec. Term, 1783, have been abstracted from the brief entries in Wake County Court Minutes, and appear below:

OBITUARY OF WILLIAM H. BASON, GENEALOGIST

In the passing of William H. Bason, of Raleigh, on June 9, 1958, the state lost an esteemed and valuable citizen. The son of Fannie Badham and Capt. George F. Bason, he was born January 25, 1877, in Charlotte, N. C., where he grew to manhood. First attending the private school of Dr. Alexander, in Charlotte, he completed his education at VPI at Blacksburg, Va. After spending his early business years in Birmingham, Ala., he came to Raleigh in 1919 where he became Vice-President of Carolina Builders Corp. He later became engaged in genealogical work and rendered an outstanding contribution in this field, assembling a large number of family records in this and other states. His deep interest in establishing authentic family lines was an achievement that will be valuable to present and future generations. Always interested in patriotic organizations, he held offices in various associations and was instrumental in forming the Society of Colonial Wars in the State of North Carolina, was an officer in the N. C. Society of SAR, and a member of the Society of the Descendants of the Knights of the Garter.

On April 19th, 1922, he was married to Hannah Willard Ashe, of Raleigh, daughter of the late Capt. Samuel A Court Ashe. Surviving are his widow, two sons, William A. Bason and George F. Bason of Raleigh, six grandchildren, and one sister, Mrs. Athel C. Burnham of Chapel Hill, N. C.
